Is Networking Effective?

Some of you may wonder, "Do networking events really work?" And, "What's in it for me, besides free door prizes, bidding on amazing silent auction items, hearing Birmingham's upcoming new artists live, and visiting with the Grace Klein Community?!! I'm glad you asked!

A few of our recent networking stories...

Shannon Shriver, Sales Director with OneSouth Financial Group, in Birmingham, attended a Networking for A Cause event and met Torie Nix, Owner of The Rinehart Insurance Agency, in Columbiana. After the event they followed up and Torie ended up helping Shannon with his P/C coverage, and Shannon solved one of Torie's financial goals. They realized that their clients could benefit from what they each offered separately. So, in April they formed a partnership and not only are their businesses thriving, but their clients are well insured and very happy.

Another attendee, Allison Combs of Alabama Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries met Chris and Janet Goins of A2 Church at the same event. After sharing their hearts, they also followed up with one another, after the event. A2 Church has a ladies gathering monthly, Lovely, and they invited Allison to share at their April event. How sweet is our Father?!

Please join us for Networking for a Cause, Tuesday, June 26, 4-8 pm at Dreamland BBO on 280. You never know who you are going to meet and how God will use this event to grow your business or ministry.

Global Efforts

Be All In. Be All There.

“A few years ago I took a trip to Zambia and I couldn’t ever seem to get all there. Physically I was there. Spiritually, mentally, emotionally I was anywhere and everywhere except for where God had called me. Usually the things that keep me from being fully present is work, insecurities in my abilities and giftings, and missing my sweet Jen back home. For weeks before this trip I prayed that God would allow me to be fully present with Him and His people in Zambia. He answered with a resounding yes over and over again.

How does the Lord want us to approach him? BE ALL IN!!!! Jump in and don’t hold back. Don’t try to cover up and preserve certain areas of your life. Give it all to him. Fully exposed and ready to be drenched. Once it’s drenched, let it soak. BE ALL IN!!! BE ALL THERE!!!!” READ MORE

BETTER TOGETHER

“Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.” Romans 12: 4-5

Our “better togethers” introduce various members of Grace Klein Community and help us understand how our different giftings work together to form one body. We are better together.

Quiet Obedience

A humble and quiet mama of a bunch of littles contacted Grace Klein Community about committing to serve regularly with their family. They all wanted to come, even the daddy, and could they come on Friday afternoons. You are kidding, right??

Tessa Jones and her family have been coming to GKC on Fridays for over a year now. Often she is wearing one of the babies and littles are scrubbing compost buckets. They are teaching the kids to sweep and mop, to wipe down shelves, to sanitize containers and fridges, to look for anything that needs to be put away or straightened. The obvious point is they are willing to do anything to help and Tessa and her husband are teaching their children the value of serving and the extra blessing of serving unseen.

Tessa lays down her life every single day for her family, calm and non-confrontational, slow to speak and slow to anger, a scripture loving memory verse queen, an encourager who takes people to God’s Word, she intentionally seeks God in everything and the fruit of the spirit is evident in her day to day life. ## Bold Vulnerability

Grace Klein Community creates many different intentional gatherings to provide opportunities for members to laugh, grow, serve, pray, and worship together. Our events give opportunities for members to live life together. A special favorite, ladies nights! A time for women of all ages to let go, laugh a little, cry a lot, and just be free to share their hearts without the sense of judgement from the world. The Lord brings us together in our imperfection, brokenness and insecurities, (vulnerability at it's best,) and turns our burdens of this world into beautiful surrender to the Father as we journey life together.

We LOVE Brookville Elementary

Every Friday morning for the past year, Darrien and Ashanti Dill come to the Grace Klein Community office and pick up food for 28 children of Brookville Elementary Back Pack Buddies Program. Darrien and Ashanti know firsthand what going hungry feels like. Darrien had just finished law school and was in an accident involving an 18-wheeler. He was in and out of the hospital for 3 years. After his recovery he could no longer practice law due to injuries he sustained in the accident. They ended up losing everything. He and Ashanti were living in their car. After a hospital visit, the doctor told them about Birmingham Hospitality Network, where 13 church host congregations would allow them to stay 1 week at a time for 8 months. There they had church members who would spend the night with them and tend to their needs. READ MORE
