Monthly Food Delivery – 10 Year Anniversary

10 YEARS. September marks 10 years of monthly food delivery!!! Not a month has been missed and Asbury United Methodist Church has shared their facility with us since day one at NO COST to GKC. Asbury UMC has also blessed us generously with financial support EVERY year to keep us going!!! Their 2019 gift commitment is $20,000. All glory to Jesus!

We have a million people who deserve our gratitude over the last 10 years, but today our hosting church partner Asbury UMC is at the top of our list!!! May God bless the people of Asbury UMC with even more sweet intimacy with Jesus, an insatiable hunger for God's word, a complete resting in His faithfulness, the crazy faith that moves mountains, a blanket of peace that engulfs every little anxiety, and a lifestyle of worship to the One who gave it all. Heap all the goodness of Jesus over their heads. Come stand under their awning if you want to stand on HOLY GROUND!!!! The presence of Jesus is in this place.

"But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of Him..." – 1 Peter 2:9

Local Efforts

Holly Hurt - Food Distribution Coordinator

"I first became involved with Grace Klein Community in the late summer of 2017. Jason Waltman asked my husband, Colin, who works for Grace Klein Construction, if I would be interested in helping his wife, Jenny Waltman, with an upcoming event. When Colin asked me I was excited to find out about the "No More Safety Pins" event! I arrived at Liberty Church where the event was being held and could immediately see that this was going to be a BIG to-do for mothers in our area. Upon meeting Jenny, she embraced me with a huge, loving, and welcoming hug and gave me a brief description of all the wonderful things they were trying to organize and prepare for families. As we walked and talked she gave me a little encouragement and threw me right in. I learned over the next several days that this BIG event was only a teeny tiny portion of how Grace Klein loves on the people of Birmingham, and around the world.

Jenny and a few volunteers shared with me about other incredible ways I could be involved to help Grace Klein Community engage Birmingham and share the love of Christ. I was invited to come to the Grace Klein Office to check out how amazing God is by seeing first hand how He provides everything we need to love and support our neighbors. Jenny was super encouraging and full of examples of ways to build a relationship with God and with our community from the very start. I specifically remember her telling me "Pray for tomatoes and they will just show up at the office and if not whatever else you are in need of will. We just have to trust God, and pray hard...." and that was followed by a really good Jesus story. READ MORE

"The Lord works in mysterious ways. He leads and guides us in directions that we would have never seen coming. He challenges us in ways that draw us nearer to Him. Looking back on how I ended up here at Grace Klein Community, it is humbling to see each little piece of the puzzle that has been put into place. Growing up just outside of Birmingham to a strong Christian family, I was not exposed to many hard things in life. I was seemingly unaware of the great need that existed in my community and the needs that existed just 30 minutes away in Birmingham. I volunteered with different organizations for a time, but nothing ever really clicked.

When I was in middle school, we ran into some pretty difficult circumstances that affected our family unit in more ways than one. It was during this time that I really wondered why bad things happened, why I felt like I couldn't trust anyone. This time of searching and longing led me to the Lord in a way that I had never experienced before. It was then that I learned that the Lord is always faithful. That He is the One who can always be trusted. His plans are ultimately for our good and His glory, even if it doesn't seem that way at the time.

As I finished out my high school years, I began to become more involved in the church. I couldn't stay away. I was finding every opportunity I could to serve because that is what God calls us to doto give out of the abundance of love we have been given by Him in the sacrifice of his Son on the cross. Throughout that time, I felt a strong desire to be involved in international missions. This call led me to Samford University. READ MORE

Grace Klein Community Loves Community Events!

On Saturday, September 14th, Rocky Ridge Cumberland Presbyterian Church hosted a Regional Women's Conference entitled "Walking in Love." The day was complete with a luncheon, a speaker, door prizes and a service project that attendees could participate in while onsite. Grace Klein Community was honored to be asked to provide the activity and was allowed time to speak and share our mission with the ladies. Rachael Cannon and Tracie Mark represented Grace Klein Community and led the women in creating beautiful individual fabric patches that the women each personalized, to be hand-sewn on our burlap curtains in our food pantry.

On Tuesday, September 24th, Trace Crossings Elementary hosted a Parent's Night Out for the families in their English Learners Program. Their aim was to connect families in Hoover with services available in the community such as education, health care, student activities and other resources. Grace Klein Community was honored to be included in the list of participating vendors. READ MORE

"Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others." Romans 12: 4-5

Our "better togethers" introduce various members of Grace Klein Community and help us understand how our different giftings work together to form one body. We are better together.

Born Leader

"And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." – Colossians 3:17

"If there ever was someone that did everything at 100 percent, 100 percent of the time, even when no one was looking... it is Lakeisha Greene. Honestly, if it were possible, I think "Keisha" as we lovingly call her, does even more when no one is looking! I cannot tell you how many times I have stopped in the middle of a project to walk upstairs to look for something or gone outside to make a call and come back only to find my work completed! I have even had work set aside for special serve team projects and Keisha just happened to see the work needing to get done and completed it before the serve team ever arrived!

Keisha is one of those volunteers that can genuinely be confused as staff because she's a mainstay around here and she is always working! I have never once had to find her something to do or even give her suggestions because she has this amazing ability to just look for things that need to be done and then do them. She is a natural born leader, motivator and absolute risk taker who we honestly do not know how we could ever do without. Keisha, thank you for your excellence and for setting the bar so high that we have to check ourselves when you're here! We love you and appreciate all you do!" — Tracie Mark, Serve Team Coordinator

Be A Champion

"Once You spoke in a vision to Your devoted ones and said, I have endowed one who is mighty [a hero, giving him the power to help — "to be a CHAMPION for Israel]; I have exalted one chosen from among the people." — Psalm 89:19

"The day I met Ovid Haskins I heard the word "champion." His demeanor and his energy told me that shoe certainly fit. His work ethic and strength is way beyond what I would expect for someone his age and his integrity outshines even that. Then I met Gayle Haskins... and I heard "champion" again. Hmm, I thought, both of them? Absolutely, without a shadow of a doubt. Gayle is quiet, humble, respectful and although she is a woman of very few words in the natural, she ROARS in the Spirit! Then it made sense. I believe it says in Genesis 2:24, and I am paraphrasing, "the two shall become one flesh." They may work and do things differently, but they are one in every other way that counts." READ MORE

MEET ONE OF OUR FAITHFUL BUSINESS PARTNERS

"God birthed the non-profit, Grace Klein Community, from a construction company where many customers and friends believed in loving others above themselves. When we work for God, we cannot imagine what He will do. He is in the business of doing more than we can hope for or imagine.

We partner with Grace Klein Community because we believe that community is a verb, not a noun. Our desire is to see the Kingdom of God grow. We have counted the cost and choose to take the risk to love as Jesus loves and to lay down our lives for our friends as Jesus did for us.

We value the support of community through the good days and the hard ones and we hope to offer that same support to others." www.gracekleinconstruction.com
