Rebuilding Physical and Spiritual Walls - Pearls of Slum

We praise God and thank the Lord for the opportunities He has given us to be used as vessels for relief efforts to flood affected families in Kerala, India.

$1,200 has been raised thus far, and $1,000 has been used towards the cause. We have bought two mattresses, three gas stoves, groceries, clothes and toiletry items. All items were distributed in three different areas among 33 families. The complete bills and accountability will be given to Grace Klein Community. We have distributed food, toiletries and clothing kits in our neighborhood, to 30 families, with the help of our church teens.

$200 of the $1,200 still remains from the money raised towards helping families affected by the flood. We are still raising funds to refurbish houses in Tamil colony, Pathalam area. We are struggling to come out of the chaos that the recent floods caused. People who have strong homes and money could restart their lives, but people without concrete houses and living in poverty are battling and miserable. The remaining $200 will be used to refurbish these Tamilian homes, but the money is not sufficient.

If you feel the Lord leading you to contribute toward the rebuilding of the Tamilian homes, here is how you can give:

Check donations can be mailed to: Grace Klein Community, 1678 Montgomery Hwy #104, Birmingham, AL 35216.

Please include "India Flood Relief" in the memo line. READ MORE

Unspoken Aches to the Father – Dakar Academy

"This week!!! God "showed up" again. Long story, short - For a few days before my walk I had anticipated taking a right on the small back road near our daily commute. Instead, the day of my walk I took a right out of our campus onto the main road. Responding to however and why-ever He led. Super.

Long story, short - my first walk was brilliant. God helped me sum up with a goal, a purpose that will keep me going. Why are we doing this together, Father? Me: I want to become more aware of Holy Spirit speaking to and through me constantly. I want to practice to pray without ceasing. I want to willingly and humbly obey Him.

That night, as the whole school was on campus at an evening event, we had heard of an abduction on that same small back road near our daily commute. God rerouted me. And I followed." – Caitlin Woodward, Dakar Academy

Local Efforts - "Go Live Your Life"

"Go live your life" are the new words that guide Evan's days now. In August he had his milestone MRI that was used to compare to his August 2017 MRI which was performed at the end of chemotherapy treatment. One year later his results are excellent... no sign of cancer and possibly even improvement in the area of radiation therapy. There is no longer any swelling and he now can schedule MRI testing every three months instead of every two months for the next year.

His insurance will change in November, and once again the stress of investigating and comparing medical and prescription policies has taken its toll on our family. The insurance this year has worked very well, but is no longer an option and again he is forced to choose new coverage. The new insurance will mean less coverage and much more expense. Please join us in PRAYER as we trust God to cover his necessary medicines. READ MORE

"Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others." Romans 12: 4-5

Our "better togethers" introduce various members of Grace Klein Community and help us understand how our different giftings work together to form one body. We are better together.

Joyfully Optimistic

To call Ms. Penny a fireball is as much an understatement as is calling the lioness a kitten. The energy she brings to GKC community is dramatically started and joyfully optimistic. When someone comes by the Sunday Trade Market, she is virtually always the first person to ask them if they have enough milk/eggs/bread/etc., and with cheer in her voice, helps accommodate any questions or needs the person may have.

Penny says she started working at GKC community simple because she is a people person—it is just in her DNA to help people, and boy—does she! Her natural compassion for everyone that comes through that door is evident by her enthusiasm to get to know the individuals within the community. Several times I tried to speak to Ms. Penny for an interview, but every time we would get cut short, because she would begin serving someone. Now that—that is a woman who has her priorities straight! There were several times I would be looking for Ms. Penny, and I would ultimately find her outside, in the blistering heat, helping someone with their bags and consoling them with words of empowerment and/or worship.

Our Sunday Best

Sunday is a time where most of us slow down after the hectic week, and finally have time to reflect on how we are coping and what we are grateful to have. Our Sunday Trade Market is a highlight for most. We often have familiar faces, as well as a handful of newcomers; all of which bring their own special energy into the office and experience.

Trade Market Sundays have waves of calm lulls and bustling action! As wee ones scamper throughout the house holding small cakes and binkies, volunteers help happy mamas and old friends. With a crew of volunteers helping everyone who comes through the doors, everything from food distribution to preparation runs smoothly—despite the magnitude of families in the office at any given time and our privilege to participate in organized chaos.

Operation "Entertaining Angels"

On September 8, 2018, Shades Mountain Baptist Church's 7-2-9 group in partnership with Vestavia Hills Chamber of Commerce's "Helping Hands in the Hills" and PESI worked a landscaping rehab plan from Tiffany Sutton at the new community house, providing dirt and filling in long ditch in front right elevation, pressure washing the sidewalk, overhauling the yard with cleanup, tree transplanting and haul off of debris.
