Global Efforts – Dakar Academy, Senegal

They say here that October is the worst month. Worst because its hot season. Worst because its crazy busy even when it doesn't have to be. Worst because the slump of culture shock hits some. Worst because you're waiting for a break and the first glimpse of that is... so... far... away.

Yes, we are melting. It's hot. It's busy. It's sad making adjustments right now. But I also hate making that excuse. "It's the worst but keep pressing through." Sometimes that is just dumb. Why can't we adjust, adapt, change, make it easier.

Or here's another option: PRAISE.

I heard a pastor share online the other week from Psalm 22. Even in our suffering, God is enthroned by our praises. Praise when life is easy is easy. Praise in our suffering refines us and tests us. And if God is enthroned in our praise... who is enthroned in our complaints? READ MORE

"Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful." – Colossians 3:15

„Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts? since as mem BETTER TOGETHER were called to peace' and be thankful!.. – Colossians 3:15

“Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.” Romans 12: 4-5

Our “better togethers” introduce various members of Grace Klein Community and help us understand how our different giftings work together to form one body. We are better together.

One of Our Angels

Nancy first started following GKC online and watching our needs. Every other week Nancy would bring me a bag or a box of something that we had posted that we needed at the office. Then Christmas rolled around and we had posted about toys and our need for someone to adopt one of our families in need. Nancy jumped at the call and quickly grabbed Christmas gifts and more for a single mama and her child. There was a time, long ago, that Nancy was a single mama herself at Christmas trying to make ends meet and provide a Christmas for her kids. Nancy could relate and began to find other ways to help at Grace Klein because of the kinship she now felt.

A few months ago, I finally convinced Nancy to join me at our monthly food delivery. With her husband out of town, she agreed to spend the day with me delivering my route that has seven families. Nancy absolutely loved the hustle & bustle of monthly food delivery at Asbury UMC, but her heart was broken for the families that we serve. She has promised to bring her husband, Robert, back to join us for more. Nancy is truly an angel without visible wings, but a halo none-the-less! (wink) READ MORE

Washing Feet

Joy has raised her three boys as a single parent, has never turned away someone in need of a meal or a place to stay, and takes care of all the animals on her little farm with the care and knowledge of a seasoned rancher. Now she devotes some of her already precious time to Grace Klein Community.

Joy decided to check out Grace Klein by coming to our monthly food delivery. Of course, with her generous servant's heart, I knew it wouldn't be her last time. Joy has gone from delivering one box, to three boxes to ten boxes and has even delivered my personal route of seven on top of her own.

During our No More Safety Pins event, she came to participate and jumped in to serve. She invited others to come to the clothing trade and blessed many others with clothing. Joy definitely has a heart of gold and shares the mission of Grace Klein Community to a tee! Thank you, Joy Jones for all you do! You live out your name! READ MORE

Church Coming Soon (Connectivus Church) to Calera, AL, and we were honored to meet many of its charter members at a worship gathering on Sunday evening, October 27, 2019. Together we can turn the world upside down.
